A BILLION TO THE BAD.

If the Republican tariff act in effect in 1913 had remained on the statute books the revenues of the United States would have been $1,200,000,000 ahead of what they are today, declared Representative William E. Andrews, of Nebraska, in speaking recently on the results of Democratic party policies. The Underwood tariff reduced the customs revenues $100,000,000 the first year. "The shortage was to be replaced by a like return from an income tax," said Mr. Andrews. "Under the first provision for an income tax enacted by a Democratic Congress the returns were about $67,000,000. A Democratic Secretary of the Treasury threw out his dragnet over the country to catch the millionaires and round them up with funds sufficient to supply the treasury and thus prevent a deficit. The $100,000,000 did not come and as a result Congress was called upon for some more legislation and enacted war taxes in times of peace."

The United States is now living within its income, according to the report of the Secretary of the Treasury for the fiscal year which ended June 30. The report shows that the income of the Government exceeded disbursements by $291,221,547, an income which might readily have been turned into deficit amounting to $648,470,994.97, according to Representative Frank W. Mondell, of Wyoming, that the Republican Congress had accepted the estimates of the administration for the expenses of the Government during the year. The same report of the Secretary of the Treasury shows that since the Republican party has been in majority in Congress the public debt has been reduced $2,297,380,180. Further reduction in the expenses of the Government and in the public debt is promised during the present year by the action of the Republican Congress in saving $1,474,422,602.16 below the estimates of the present administration.

When the Republican Congress convened a year ago the War Department had immense stocks of canned foodstuffs in storage purchased prior to the armistice for the maintenance of the Army. These enormous supplies the War Department purposed at first to dispose of in Europe, according to the statement of Newton D. Baker, Secretary of War, who claimed that there was "only a limited market in the United States." The Republican Congress promptly passed a resolution directing the War Department to place these goods on sale in the United States. After months of delay and grudging compliance with the law, the War Department now announces that it will dispose of the remainder of these commodities. Canned corned beef, corned beef hash, roast beef and bacon to the value of $25,000,000 are now being disposed of in various sections of the country within reasonable hauling distance of the retailers and wholesalers in every community. The prices are below pre-war quotations.

According to Representative William J. Graham, chairman of the Committee on Expenditures in the War Department, the surplus food held by the army in the United States following the armistice was valued at 100,000,000. "The War Department had entered into tentative agreements with the packers," he states, "not to put this food upon the market and were using every method to dispose of it, by feeding it to the soldiers or otherwise, so that it should not be sold to the people. As a result of the resolution passed by a Republican Congress $57,000,000 of this food was sold prior to the recent announcement of the War Department placing $25,000,000 of these goods on sale."

WHAT HE PROMISED—

Cox, who is absolutely at one with the President, is as forceful as the President in giving assurance of fulfillment of pledges, though he uses different language. The Wilson assurance was that "our platform pledges are not molasses to catch flies; they are made to be kept while in office as well as to be relied upon during the campaign." And he proceeded to break practically every pledge the platform made. Mr. Cox says, "the platform of the Democratic party is a promissory note. I shall see that it is paid in full." Possibly some of Mr. Wilson's molasses will get smeared on the note so that it will be illegible by 1921. But that is immaterial; the country is not going to call upon Mr. Cox to fulfill any pledges.

AMONG THE HOME FOLKS.

As a vote getter among people who know him personally, Senator Harding is probably without a peer. In the county in which he spent his boyhood and where the people are most familiar with his record in his dealings with his fellow men, Mr. Harding received 2,411 votes to 233 for his opponent, or a majority of more than nine to one. In his old home precinct he received the vote of every citizen who voted to the polls. Senator Harding has demonstrated that there are exceptions to the old rule that a prophet is not without honor save in his own country.

BECKHAM'S BITE.

Senator Beckham of Kentucky has promised Candidate Cox a sweeping state victory in November. To make that promise good the Democratic party must overturn a majority of 40,000 given the Republican candidate for Governor last year. The Kentuckians are very well satisfied with the administration which Governor Morrow has given them, and they are fighting mad respecting the Wilson-Cox plan to internationalize the United States. So Beckham appears to have bitten off more than he can chew.

Harney County (Ore.) News.—Great Britain has plenty of money to send to Argentina to build up her trade in competition with the United States, but she has no funds with which to pay the interest on her debt to America.

BROTHER STAYS IN JAIL WHILE SISTER MARRIES.

New York.—John O'Connor, a veteran of the world war, who was gassed and otherwise disabled, faced Magistrate Nolan in night court on a charge of disorderly conduct. Alice O'Connor, a sister, caused his arrest. She told the magistrate that O'Connor had come to their home and had wrecked the furniture and otherwise made himself disagreeable.

"And why did he do all this?" the magistrate asked.

"I'm going to be married," said Miss O'Connor, "and he objects to the marriage."

The magistrate considered for a minute, then held O'Connor without bail for appearance in night court.

"That will enable you to get married without interference," said the judge.

Catarrhal Deafness Cannot Be Cured

Medical application of the ear canals reach the deepest portion of the ear canal. There is one way to cure catarrhal deafness, and that is by a constitutional remedy.

Hall's Catarrh Medicine is an ideal condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is in normal condition, it is perfectly open, giving perfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result. Unless restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Many cases of deafness are due to catarrh, and when it is an indolent condition of the mucous surfaces, Hall's Catarrh Medicine acts thru the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Catarrhal Deafness that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Medicine. Circulars free. All Druggists.

Production of important crops will exceed that of last season, with the exception of wheat; the aggregate production will be in excess of all domestic demands. The average yield per acre is larger than for some years; the quality is excellent, and the shortage in the acreage has been more than overcome. In the past two months there has been a complete reversal of the dismal forebodings that attended the plantings under climatic restrictions; ideal weather conditions have turned the prospect of partial failure into bountiful harvests, and promise of still better return in the crops that come to harvest later in the season.

What could be more convincing proof of the efficiency of Doan's Kidney Pills than the statement of a Maysville citizen who used them and who publicly tells of the benefit derived?

Ben P. Fleming, constable of Mason Co., 217 E. Lee St., Maysville, says: "I have used Doan's Kidney Pills off and on for several years, getting them at Wood & Son's Drug Store, and they have been of great benefit. At times my kidneys have been out of order and I have suffered from a dull, constant ache through the small of my back. The kidney secretions have been irregular in passage, too. A box or so of Doan's Kidney Pills has never failed to relieve me of the complaint in a short time."

PLANS FOR FUND DISTRIBUTION NEAR- ING COMPLETION

Arrangements for the Medical Treatment of Disabled Soldiers Are Now Being Hayidly Made.

That plan for the disbursement of $46,000,000 recently appropriated by Congress for the medical treatment and hospitalization of disabled ex-service men, the fund to be administered through the Bureau of War Risk Insurance, is nearing completion, is announced by Director R. G. Cholmley-Jones.

The item in the Sundry Civil Bill which carries this appropriation reads in part as follows:

"Medical and Hospital Services: For medical, surgical, and hospital services, medical examinations, funeral expenses, traveling expenses, and supplies, for beneficiaries of the Bureau of War Risk Insurance, including court costs and other expenses incident to proceedings heretofore or hereafter taken for commitment of mentally incompetent persons to hospitals for the care and treatment of the insane, $46,000,000. This appropriation shall be disbursed by the Bureau of War Risk Insurance and such portion thereof as may be necessary shall be allotted from time to time to the Public Health Service, the Board of Managers of the National Homes for Disabled Volunteer Soldiers, and the War and Navy Departments, and transferred to their credit for disbursement by them for the purpose set forth in this paragraph. The allotments to the said Board of Managers shall also include such sums as may be necessary to alter or improve existing facilities in the several branches under its jurisdiction, so as to provide adequate accommodations for such beneficiaries of the Bureau of War Risk Insurance as may be committed to its care."

As a first step in carrying out the provisions of this appropriation, which became effective July 1, 1920, an examination was conducted as to the availability of certain National Homes for Disabled Volunteer Soldiers, which have been established throughout the country.

Later, at a conference between General Wood, President of the Board of Managers of the National Homes for Disabled Volunteer Soldiers, Doctor Salmon, representing the National Hygiene committee of the Rockefeller Foundation, Doctor Pattison, representing the National Tuberculosis Association, and R. G. Cholmley-Jones, Director of the Bureau of War Risk Insurance, it was decided to convert two of the National Homes into sanatoriums for the exclusive treatment of tuberculosis and one of the Homes into a sanatorium for the exclusive treatment of mental cases. Each of the tuberculosis sanatoriums is being equipped to care for one thousand hospital patients, and the sanatorium for the treatment of mental cases will also accommodate one thousand cases.

At the present time there are approximately 17,625 War Risk patients in hospitals; 7,980 of whom are in U. S. Public Health Service Hospitals and 9,645 in hospitals and other institutions not owned or operated by the Government. Some nine hundred hospitals in the United States are now included in the list of those housing War Risk patients, the number of patients assigned to each hospital ranging from one to several hundred.

If the number of patients continues to increase at the present rate, by the end of the fiscal year there will be approximately thirty thousand War Risk patients in hospitals.

These patients who have become disabled by reason of their military or naval service and who are, therefore, provided for under the War Risk Act, are classified in three divisions, as surgical and general, as tuberculous and as mental cases. The difficulties to be coped with in the treatment and care of mental cases exceed those to be encountered in the care of tubercular patients, who in turn must be given the specialized treatment necessary to combat that disease, and the proper segregation of patients in these classes, as well as the surgical and general patients, is to be accomplished only in hospitals owned and operated by the Government. It is designed that the sanatorium treatment of mental cases which is being organized, through the administration of the War Risk appropriation, shall become the leading institution of its kind in America, and that the two sanatoriums to be devoted exclusively to the care and treatment of tuberculosis patients shall be of the highest type in construction and equipment.

By securing the existing hospital facilities of the War and Navy Departments and the National Homes for Disabled Volunteer Soldiers there will be available in the army hospitals approximately four thousand beds, in the Navy Department approximately four thousand beds, and in the National Homes for Disabled Volunteer Soldiers approximately six thousand beds.

These together with the approximately fifteen thousand hospital beds of the U. S. Public Health Service, which are already available or are to be made available, will aggregate approximately twenty-five thousand beds in hospitals owned and operated by the Government.

The item in the Sundry Civil Bill which carries this appropriation reads in part as follows:

"Medical and Hospital Services: For medical, surgical, and hospital services, medical examinations, funeral expenses, traveling expenses, and supplies, for beneficiaries of the Bureau of War Risk Insurance, including court costs and other expenses incident to proceedings heretofore or hereafter taken for commitment of mentally incompetent persons to hospitals for the care and treatment of the insane, $46,000,000. This appropriation shall be disbursed by the Bureau of War Risk Insurance covering the fiscal year 1920-1921 and provided for under this appropriation, for the care and treatment of all those who have become War Risk patients by reason of their military service during the recent World War."

L. Hill in Gettysburg and, after admitting the theft of the car, was held for trial.

The car was the property of Earl Singley of Fairfield and Lantz had taken it a week ago at Pen Mar Park. In explanation of his act he said that he was tired and didn't want to walk home, so he selected the Singley car and rode. Ever since then he had been using it to go to his daily work. ILLEGIT STILL DISCLOSED WHEN HOUSE BURNS.

Santa Barbara, Calif. — When fire destroyed the home of E. Solis here, the police supplied another roof for his head before the ashes of his home were cold.

The reason was that after the roof and walls of the house had tumbled in there were brought to view a thirty gallon copper mash tank, a ten gallon tank, five barrels of raisin mash, a quantity of white corn, and a mill, besides much copper tubing in the form of condensers.

Five weeks ago Solis was arrested here and fined $100 in the federal court at Los Angeles for operating a much crude apparatus for distilling than that the fire disclosed today.

SPLIT ART FUND FOR CITY BATHING BEACHES.

Philadelphia, Pa. — Bathing beaches mean more to the people of Philadelphia than the famous art collection left by the late John G. Johnson, in the opinion of Mayor Moore. The mayor so decided when he announced that $50,000 out of an appropriation of $125,000 for a separate art gallery, for the Johnson pictures will be devoted to establishing bathing beaches on the Schuylkill. The rest of the money will go toward paying bills for the maintenance and restoration of the pictures up to July 1 of this year.

For the home treatment of disease were wonderfully dependable. True, they knew nothing of drugs, but owed their success to the roots, herbs and barks of the field. It is interesting to note that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, the most successful remedy for female ills we have, was originally prepared for home use from one of these recipes. Its fame has now spread from shore to shore, and thousands of American women, now well and strong claim they owe their health and happiness to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

COLORED CITIZENS.

Rev. Jackson, of Hamilton, Ohio, will preach at Bethel Baptist church tonight under the auspices of the Sunday school. They are making efforts to raise money to send a representative to the General Association, which convenes Wednesday morning, August 11, at Paducah, Ky. Come hear this eminent divine. He preached a wonderful sermon Sunday morning.

To Whom It May Concern.
I wish to make the statement that from now on I shall have no connection with the raising of funds, or helping in any way, to aid the boys and girls of this community to gain a higher education here, or elsewhere, with or under the management of the committee formed by the proposal of Prof. Wm. H. Humphreys of the Maysville Colored High School. Having been made chairman of the committee and being unable to have a meeting of the entire committee at any of the three times called, it is my belief that I am bettering myself by withdrawing absolutely.

BESSIE HIGGINS.

RUGGLES CAMP

(By J. H. RICHARDSON.)

Ruggles Campground, August 8.

After an all-night rain this last Sunday morning dawned most unfavorably.

The Board of Directors felt rather blue over the outlook.

And the weather has been threatening all day with occasional showers.

But we have had almost an average last-Sunday crowd.

We have come to believe that the rains are coming here rain or shine.

Despite the rain the grounds soon got in good shape and have been very nice all day. The crowd has been a very orderly one. The tabernacle has been filled at every service, and at this afternoon's service when the children sang the tabernacle was filled to overflowing and great crowds standing round the outside.

After hearing Dr. Miller preach we are fully persuaded that the preaching this year, taken all in all, has been the best we have ever had. The whole program of the campmeeting has been of higher order than usual.

The day began with the usual early prayer service led by Mr. John Walsh. Mr. G. N. Harding led an enthusiastic praise service. At 10:30 Dr. Miller gave one of the greatest sermons ever preached on Ruggles campgrounds. His audience sat spell-bound with the power of the message. His subject was "A Separated Life," the burden of his sermon being a plea for Christians to come out entirely from the world and live wholly for God. Mrs. Miller, wife of the preacher sang a beautiful and touch solo before the sermon.

For the afternoon service Dr. Jolly was the preacher. It is needless to say that we had a fine sermon—always do when Dr. Jolly preaches. The music was furnished by the children, more than one hundred of them occupying places on the platform. And they sang as beautifully, if not better, as an angel choir would sing. Following their program of song the "Apollo" quartet (That's what Rev. Harrop has dubbed our male quartet) sang two selections, one being "Swing Low, Sweet Chariot" for which requests had been made.

At the closing service this evening Dr. Miller again preached a sermon that was a fitting close to the splendid series enjoyed during the campmeeting. At the close of the sermon a touching appeal was made for the living of better lives and be ready next year for a better campmeeting even than the present one has been. Many testimonies were given as to the good the meetings had done and the great blessings received. During the singing of "God Be With You Till We Meet Again" all came forward for a final handshake and goodbye. The benediction was then said by Dr. Miller.

The Board of Directors will meet

Monday morning to close up the business for the year and to lay some plans for the coming year. With the continued success of the campmeeting the board will go forward with confidence, feeling that their efforts are appreciated and will be rewarded by continued attendance and support of the campmeeting.

Ruggles Campground, August 7. Another rainy Saturday! What's wrong with the weather, anyway? This morning the weather looked as if we were in for a fine Sunday, but this afternoon the camp is again deluged with water from one of the hardest rains of the season. Surely a dark outlook for the last Sunday. But we'll hope for the best. If it will just quit before midnight the grounds will be all O. K. for the last big day. We are not superstitious but last night a black cat walked right across the tabernacle platform. Was that a sign of another rainy Saturday?

This last week day has been rather quiet. Many of the young people are out on pleasure trips. However, all services have been very well attended. The chief event of the day was the demonstration by the children. This is a regular event on Saturday when Miss Hurd has charge. This year just 66 children were in the grand march.

The little folks were all decorated for the occasion and created quite a lot of interest as they marched about the camp singing songs and otherwise entertaining the campers. They were cheered time and time again. You may know that the chief cheer leader was Rev. F. W. Harrop, who after they were through, marched the whole company to the confectionery and treated them to ice cream cones. Then it was the time for the children to give many cheers for Rev. Harrop. And not only for him but for their leader, Miss Hurd, Rev. Ashby, and for Ruggles campmeeting. We said early in the campmeeting in these notes that this place was a real "kiddies paradise." It is growing more so each year. Parents are just realizing what a fine place it is for their children. Some are even thinking of remaining here until school begins. Then again parents have come to realize that the camp Board is providing such instruction for the children as they receive from Miss Hurd, is doing all that can possibly be done for the children's welfare.

Ruggles Campmeeting has long been noted as a place for good fried chicken. This year many of the campers have had an additional luxury. Strawberries! Think of strawberries right off the vine in August! That's just what the campers have been enjoying. For this luxury the campers are indebted to Mr. T. R. Colburn of the Tolinboro county who has twice during the meetings brought a supply of his everbearing strawberries to the camp. He disposed of a whole crate today at thirty cents per quart. Mr. Colburn tells us that these berries are much better than those that bear annually and if properly cultivated will bear until freezing time. He claims to have had strawberries on Christmas eve. As a money-maker these berries are far superior to the annuals. He has had many calls for the plants by others who wish to try them. He states he has a large supply for any who might wish to try them.

Rev. E. R. Overley led the early prays and Rev. A. P. Smith preached a great sermon for us this morning. It was with much regret that we had to part with these two popular preachers as soon, but both had to fill Sunday appointments, and so left the camp early in the afternoon.

Rev. Harrop conducted the final young people's service at 3 p. m. He gave a most interesting talk on the mountain problem of Kentucky. Those who know Bro. Harrop and heard him on this topic know that he is thoroughly familiar with it, speaking from first-hand information. He is able to put the facts in such an entertaining and yet in such a convincing manner that it is good to hear him. These services under his leadership have proven very helpful this year.

A very nice sized congregation braved the rain and mud tonight to attend the service. Rev. Literal reached the sermon. The Sunday preacher, with his wife, Rev. and Mrs. H. H. Miller, of Ashland, having arrived during the afternoon, were present at the evening service. At the conclusion of the sermon Dr. Miller was introduced and gave an earnest plea for the unsaved and for the prayers of all for a great day tomorrow, the last day of the campmeeting.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Scott Young and children came out today to remain over Sunday.

Mr. John H. Bryant, of Portsmouth, is visiting his nephew, Mr. A. T. Warder, near the campground and is taking in the meetings.

Mrs. R. P. Moody came out today to spend the last Sunday at the meetings.
